Mission Accomplished

One of the principal duties of the Messenger of the Covenant was to confirm all the previous scriptures, which were delivered by the prophets, and to restore them to their original purity. This is recorded in Quran: "God took a covenant from the prophets, saying: 'After I have given you the scripture and wisdom, a messenger will come to confirm what you have. You shall believe in him and support him.' He said, 'Do you agree with this, and pledge to uphold this covenant?' They said, 'We agree. He said, 'You have taken a firm witness.'" (3:181). Since Muhammad was the last prophet, not the final messenger according to Quran (33:40), this verse prophesies the coming of a messenger after him. Throughout the mathematical code God imbued in Quran, His final scripture, God clarified that this messenger was Dr. Rashad Khalifa.

Throughout history, the messengers of God delivered and advocated the same message: "You shall not worship except God." (41:14). They never asked for a wage for themselves. They were punished those who transgressed. For it is our duty to give victory to the believers." (30:47).

Each messenger was chosen by God to perform specific duties in accordance with His plan. They will be held responsible for fulfilling the duties given to them (21:28). In his 19 years of messengership, Dr. Rashad Khalifa fulfilled the duties that were assigned to him by God. He advocated the worship of God alone and following Quran alone. He warned the people who idolize other entities besides God that they are following Satan’s footsteps. He reminded them that the only way to salvation is true Islam, submission to God (21:28). The following is a list of duties that Dr. Rashad Khalifa fulfilled during his time as God’s Messenger of the Covenant:

1. Unveil and proclaim Quran’s mathematical miracle that is based on the number (19:73-35).
2. Expose and remove the two false verses 9:128-129 from Quran.
3. Explain the purpose of our lives; why we are here, on this earth.
4. Proclaim one religion for all the people (3:10), and point out and purge away all the corruptions affecting Judaism, Christianity and Islam.
5. Proclaim that Zakat (obligatory charity) is a prerequisite for redemption (7:156), and explain the correct method of observing Zakat.
6. Unveil the end of the world (2280 AD).
7. Proclaim that those who die before the age of forty go to Heaven (46:15).
9. Explain Quran’s delivery to, then through, Muhammad.
10. Announce that Muhammad wrote God’s revelations (Quran) with his own hand.
11. Explain why most believers in God do not make it to Heaven.
12. Proclaim that God never ordered Abraham to kill his son.
13. Proclaim the secret of perfect happiness.
14. Explain the Quranic criminal justice system.
15. Explain the correct way to perform Salat (Contact prayers).
16. Explain the correct months of observing Hajj (pilgrimage).
17. Proclaim that the believers do not die; they go to Heaven.
18. Explain women’s rights in the society and polygamy.
19. Proclaim the correct Shahadah (declaration of faith): "Lahilana Ella Allah (There is no other god besides God).
20. His English translation of Quran, the final scripture, was authorized by God. This translation presents God’s revelation to the world in the clearest form. It is a blessing from God for humanity, especially given the fact that the vast majority of people are yet to come to this world.

The Messenger of the Covenant accomplished his mission. As submitters to God alone, it is now our turn to accomplish our goal: Worship God alone, follow Quran alone. That is the straight path—the path of those whom God blessed.
WE HAVE SENT TO THEM WARNERS (37:72)

Four months ago Dr. Rashad Khalifa was taken from this world. He is no longer with us, but the message which God delivered through him is. You can kill the messenger, but you cannot kill the message.

Whatever you thought of Dr. Khalifa's words, now is your chance to examine the facts, for obviously some were frightened enough of their truth that they committed murder to try and stop them.

You cannot stop God's truth. What did Dr. Khalifa say that so frightened some Mohamedans governments that they put a price on his head? What did Dr. Khalifa say that so frightened the Arabs that they cannot think of the truth they committed murder to try and stop them?

WORSHIP GOD ALONE & FOLLOW QURAN ALONE!

Let us leave aside personalities and examine the basics.

Fact Number 1: Today's Muslims are divided into factions, each fighting against the others. That, despite the fact that God tells us "They will never obey you in anything but in prayer and prostration." (10:32)

Wars are fought between "Muslim brothers" in the name of religion. What causes these divisions? Following rulers other than the Qur'an alone! If every Muslim followed only the laws given directly by God they would not be divided...they would be guided. DoyoucallyourselfSunni? Or Shia?

Fact Number 2: God warns us that "The majority of those who believe in God do not do so out of choosing good worship." (12:106) We must examine ourselves to see if we are part of that majority. How can we tell? Read on.

Fact Number 3: When the angels fell prostate before Adam, they were not worshiping him. They were worshiping the One who told them to prostrate. We learn from this that we worship the one whose religious laws we obey (93:1, 42:21). What laws do you follow? What laws do your parents follow? Which Gud delivered through him is.

Fact Number 4: Muslims have been taught to perform their religious duties in a way that deviates from the straightforward commands in the Qur'an. For example, 17:10 tells us clearly "Do not utter your contact prayers (Salat) too loudly, nor secretly; you shall use a moderate tone." Yet Muslims the world over pray the noon and afternoon silently. And God tells us that we should "give the due alms, on the day of harvest." (6:141) Yet Muslims are taught to give money away for a year, though it is the right of the needy year round. How do you pray? How do you give the zakat?

Fact Number 5: The most important principle of religion, the Shahadah - commonly known as the First Pillar of Islam - is almost universally nullified by modern Muslims. In verse 3:18 God clearly states the Shahadah: "God bears witness that there is no god except He, and so do the angels and those who possess knowledge. He is the absolute god. There is no god except He, the All-Mighty, the Wise. God does not mention any human in His Shahadah. In fact, verses 37:26-30 show that Muslims will blame their leaders on the day of resurrection for misleading them. They will be guilty because "When they were told, "La Elaha Ela Allah" (Shahadah), they turned arrogant." (37:32) We know also from 39:45 that the reason most people put another name with God's, is that they do not really believe in the Hereafter. Do you mention Muhammad in your Shahadah?

Fact Number 6: God clearly tells us that the Qur'an is fully detailed (6:114, 5:32-33) and contains all that we need to know. Both your leaders and your hadiths are the human innovations of Hadith & Sunna?

Fact Number 7: Those who do not heed God's message are doomed, like those before them were doomed.

Do you not realize that their territory is continuously shrinking around them, while God rules and His judgment is irrevocable? He is the most efficient Reckoner.

Others before them have schemed, but to God belongs the ultimate schematic. He knows what everyone is doing. The rumourers' mumbo-jumbo can find out who the ultimate winners are.

Those who disbelieve will say, "You are only a handful! "God will face As a witness between me and you, and those who possess knowledge of the scripture." (11:43)

If you cannot truthfully say that you are following the religion of Submission as God taught us in the Qur'an and the practices given through Abraham, know that God is the acceptor of repentance. If you choose not to repent, and reform, BEWARE. God has sent His message again through a man. That man is now gone, and retribution is imminent for the rejectors.

Purifying the practices of Pilgrimage (or Hajj) was one of the duties of the Messenger of the Covenant, as listed in this issue's cover story. Because many of us have not yet had the opportunity to make Hajj, it is important to share the correct practices. To end we quote the section on Pilgrimage from Appendix 15 "Religious Duties: A Gift From God", Dr. Rashad Khalifa's translation and the Quran (QURAN: THE FINAL TESTAMENT, Islamic Productions, 1989, pp 661-662):

Pilgrimage Hajj & Umrah

Once in a lifetime, Hajj and Umrah are decreed for those whom God wills. Pilgrimage commemorates Abraham's submission to God, and must be observed during the four Sacred Months - Zul-Hijjah, Muharram, Safar, & Rabih I (12th, 1st, 2nd, 3rd months) (2:197, 9:36 & 38). "Umrah can be observed any time. Like all other duties in Islam, Hajj has been distorted. Most Muslims observe Hajj only during a few days in Zul-Hijjah, and they consider Rajab, Zul-Qadah, Zul-Hijjah, and Muharram (7th, 11th, 1st, 12th, 1st months) to be the Sacred Months. This is a distortion that is strongly condemned (9:37).

The pilgrimage begins with a bath or shower, followed by a state of sanctity known as "Ishrak", where the male pilgrim wears seamless sheets of material, and the woman wears a modest dress (2:198). Throughout Hajj, the pilgrim abstains (from eating, drinking, urination, and defecation). This includes shaving and cutting the hair, arguments, misconduct, and bad language (2:197). Cleanliness, bathing, and regular hygiene practices are encouraged. Uniforms are not a Meccan fashion. The pilgrim walks around the Ka'bah seven times, while glorifying and praising God (2:125, 22:26-29). The common formula is: "Labbayka Allahumma Labbakyah" (My God, I have responded to You). "Labbayka Laka Shareeka Laabbak" (I have responded to You, and I proclaim that there is no other god besides You, I have responded to You). The next step is to walk the half-mile distance between the Ka'bah and Safa, and Marwa seven times, with occasional trotting (2:158). This completes the Umrah portion of Hajj.

The pilgrim then goes to Arafat to spend a day of worship, meditation, and glorification of God, from dawn to sunset (2:298). After sunset, the pilgrim goes to Muzdalifah where the Night Prayer is observed, and 23 pigeons are picked up for the symbolic stoning of Satan at Mina. From Muzdalifah, the pilgrim goes to Mina to spend two or three days (2:203). On the first morning at Mina, the pilgrim offers an animal sacrifice to feed the poor and to commemorate God's intervention to save Isma'il and Abraham from Satan's trick (57:60). The stoning ceremonies symbolize rejection of Satan's prophecies and are done by throwing seven pebbles at each of three stations, while glorifying God (15:34). The pilgrim then returns to Mecca and observes a farewell circumambulation of the Ka'bah seven times.

Unfortunately, most of today's Muslim pilgrims make it a custom to visit the prophet Muhammad's tomb where they commit the most flagrant acts of idolatry and thus nullify their Hajj. The Qura'an consistently talks about "The Sacred Mosque," while today's Muslims talk about "The Two Sacred Mosques!" In a glaring act of idolatry, the Muslims have set up Muhammad's tomb as another "Sacred Mosque!" This is a blasphemous violation of the Qura'an, and, ironically, even vio-

THE FOUR SACRED MONTHS: Mathematical Confirmation

God states in Qur'an that "Hajj shall be observed during specific months..." (2:197). These Sacred Months were clarified by the Messenger of the Covenant to be Zul-Hijjah, Muharram, Safar and Rabih I. Sister Ihsan Ramadan discovered that the gematrical values of the Arabic letters for these months make a unique combination with Verse 2:197, resulting a number divisible by 19. This is demonstrated as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Month</th>
<th>Gematrical Value of Each Letter</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Zul-Hijjah</td>
<td>706 6 1 30 8 3 5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Muharram</td>
<td>40 8 200 40</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Safar</td>
<td>90 80 200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rabih I</td>
<td>200 2 10 70 16 30</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Now, take the above gematrical values for each month, and add them up: 70603385 + 408200 + 9080200 + 200210701630 = 291821232904. Add, also 2 and 197 to the above numbers to represent the words of the verse (2:197). The resultant number is divisible by 19.
