In the name of God, Most Gracious, Most Merciful

And the Miracle continues...All Praise Be to God.

"By the dawn. And the ten nights. By the even and the odd. By the night as it passes. A profound oath, for one who possesses intelligence" (89:1-5).

The Quran's 19-based mathematical miracle continues to manifest itself in different forms as time goes on. God keeps sending signs to the faithful that the Quran is His unaltered word and no falsehood can enter it, and to strengthen their faith as stated in Surat 76:9.

The miracle that I will be trying to explain to you is based on a single verse in the Quran, verse 89:3 from the Basmalah to the Daww. In this verse, God swears by The Even and The Odd. At first, this may sound meaningful to a casual reader of the Quran. However, this verse is based on a single verse in number theory. The first perfect number is 6, which is 2 x 3, and the third 496, and 6096. The miracle that I will be trying to explain to you is based on a single verse in number theory. The 1st perfect number is 6, which is 2 x 3, and the 3rd 496, and so on. Remember God created the heavens and the earth in "6 DAYS". He sent the Quran in a perfect number.

In this case, 6 happens to also be a prime number. A perfect number is a number that is equal to itself. For example, 6 = 1 + 2 + 3 and also 6 = 1 x 2 x 3. As I mentioned above, the second perfect number is 28, and the third 496, and 6096. The出租 miracle that I will be trying to explain to you is based on a single verse in number theory. The first perfect number is 6, which is 2 x 3, and the third 496, and so on. Remember God created the heavens and the earth in "6 DAYS". He sent the Quran in a perfect number.

God swears by THE EVEN AND THE ODD. At first, this may sound meaningless to a casual reader of the Quran. However, this verse is based on a single verse in number theory. The first perfect number is 6, which is 2 x 3, and the third 496, and so on. Remember God created the heavens and the earth in "6 DAYS". He sent the Quran in a perfect number.

We have two pairs of prime numbers 251 and 239, 293. Let's add up all the digits in these two pairs and see what we get! 2 + 5 + 1 + 2 + 8 + 1 = 19 and 2 + 9 + 3 + 2 + 9 + 3 = 28

Again, absolutely awesome! The Almighty has designed the Quran in such a way which makes it obvious to the sincere that it is His Word. God willing, with such a continuous miracle from God, as stated in the Quran, our faith will increase.

GOD'S RETRIBUTION IS INEVITABLE

It is they who buy the strangling at the expense of guidance, and the retribution at the expense of forgiveness. Therefore, they will have to endure Hell" (2:75).

Nineteen months have passed since the assassination of God's Messenger of the Covenant, Dr. Rashad Khalifa. In his March issue, 1990, of the Submitters Prospective, Dr. Khalifa wrote an article about the retribution facing the disbelievers and enemies of the one true God. He said, "A massive asteroid will hit somewhere in the Middle East. The resulting heat will burn living organisms within a 100 mile radius. Total devastation will envelope the Arab world, main opponents of God, His miracle, and His Messenger of the Covenant (97, 381, 387). The Quranic prophecy in 49:19-21 will come to pass: A giant dust cloud will envelope the whole world and obscure the sun for a few months. In fulfillment of 17:92, the Arabs will mock and ridicule this prophecy. When will this happen? I do not know; but I have a strong feeling that this will take place before the end of 1990. Only God knows the exact time," Dr. Khalifa based this on what God declared in Surat 4:9-15, "Indeed, they are full of doubt, heedless. Therefore, look for the day when the sky brings a tremendous smoke. It will envelope the people: 'This is a painful retribution. Our Lord, remove this retribution for us, we have believed.' How come they now take heed, when a messenger had come to them, but they disregarded him and said, 'Well educated, but crazy!' (44:14) When told of their coming retribution, 'They challenge. When will this promise come to pass? If you are truthful, educate, but crazy!' (44:14) When told of their coming retribution, 'They challenge. When will this promise come to pass? If you are truthful, educate, but crazy!' (44:14) When told of their coming retribution, 'They challenge. When will this promise come to pass? If you are truthful, educate, but crazy!' (44:14)

Scientists believe they can somehow prevent an asteroid from hitting the earth. They know they cannot stop the will of God. The disbelievers will pay for rejecting the worship of God alone and for the killing of God's Messenger of the Covenant. God had gone to them with God's message of truth and told them to give up their idolatrous ways. But as the Quran says, "...they turned away from him saying, 'You are educated, but crazy!' (44:14) When told of their coming retribution, 'They challenge. When will this promise come to pass? If you are truthful, educate, but crazy!' (44:14) When told of their coming retribution, 'They challenge. When will this promise come to pass? If you are truthful, educate, but crazy!' (44:14)

"The odds are that the moment could be relatively soon, in celestial terms. Somewhere in space at this moment, hurtling toward earth at roughly 10 miles a second is a gigantic rock. The asteroid rock is an asteroid large enough to severely disrupt life on earth upon impact by lofting pulverized rock and dust that blocks most sunlight."

From the same article, Mr. Broad quotes Tom Gehrels, a professor of lunar and planetary science at the University of Arizona who heads a team that searches the sky for asteroids, "Eventually it will hit and be catastrophic." He also quotes Clark R. Chapman, an astronomer, "The earth is bound to be hit. Statistically, it's certain...The risk of death is higher per person that a jet airplane crash. The risk is high enough to suggest that action should be taken.

Scientists believe they can somehow prevent an asteroid from hitting the earth. They know they cannot stop the will of God. The disbelievers will pay for rejecting the worship of God alone and for the killing of God's Messenger of the Covenant. God had gone to them with God's message of truth and told them to give up their idolatrous ways. But as the Quran says, "...they turned away from him saying, 'You are educated, but crazy!' The Struggle Within
by Robert Bujarski

I believe he or she is a good person but still frightening to think that one may truly be labeled the "true" jihad or struggle. It is a struggle between what an individual accepts and knows to be true, yet he falls short of making this knowledge 100 percent reality in his life.

We learn from the Quran that Abraham attributes his righteousness to God, and in the same fashion, God is the Creator and provider of all things, including true belief. If God willing, the Hereafter and lead a righteous life. The people who meet these criteria, 'Am I not your Lord?' They ask, 'Yes, We hear you.' Thus, you cannot say on the Day of Resurrection, 'We were not aware of this.' Therefore, with this understanding it is possible to reason that his own belief naturally would follow. However, here is where I would like to make the distinction between knowledge and belief. It is possible to know something but not fully believe it. The quickest example that comes to mind is that of a young individual who knows something is bad for him, such as drugs, but still doesn't really believe that they can harm him. In this case, the person may know that drugs are harmful but not truly believe that they can harm him.

This type of scenario can also be related to belief in God, the Hereafter, the Quran, or religion in general. An individual may know that God exists, read the Quran, or other scriptures, accept the Hereafter, yet still not truly believe these things in his heart. This situation could be labeled the "true" jihad or struggle. It is a struggle between what an individual accepts and knows to be true, yet he falls short of making this knowledge 100 percent reality in his life.

Submitters Are Still Responsible
by Sharif Adam

Responsibility in Submission begins with the process of growing spiritually and realizing that, as submitters to God ALONE, we are still responsible for everything we say or do. God states this as the law of retribution in Surah 5:8, "Whoever does an atom's weight of good will see it. And whoever does an atom's weight of evil will see it."

It becomes a disturbing concern nowadays to see many of the submit- ters in God ALONE lie, fail important appointments, and reflect all kinds of behaviors similar to the disbelievers, and unjustly take it on God, the Most Gracious. The Almighty teaches in Surah 4:42, "God does not inflict an atom's weight of injustice. On the contrary, He multiplies the reward for the righteous work, and grants from Him a great recompense." The majority of other people continue living to win the approval of their parents, family, friends, co-workers, etc., in everything they do or say. In reality these people should be living to win the approval of God. Instead they are motivated by the desire to please their spouses or the people they are in contact with, even if what they say or do violates the divine commandment found in Surah 9:24, "Say, 'If your parents, your children, your siblings, your spouses, your family, the money you have earned, the business you worry about, and the home: you cherish are more beloved to you than God and His messenger, and striving in His cause, then just wait until God brings His judgment.' God does not guide the wicked people.

Have you noted some of the brothers and sisters in Submission whose words are inconsistent with their actions? It is not unusual to see what God says in Surah 61:2-3, "O you who believe, why do you say what you do not do?" Most astonishing in the sight of God is that you say what you do not do.

I'd like to digress here to talk briefly about communication as it relates. One human method is corresponding with words. Much of human communica-

People who always find themselves in the defensive position, thereby allowing their ego to flare up, are cheating their own souls. "Is it not what they wronged themselves?" (57:56). We should always create room for repentance for our mistakes. God promises this in Surah 25:71, "Those who repent and do righteous deeds, and ask for forgiveness, He will surely redeem them and change evil deeds to good deeds." We must also realize that only those who need to give an explana-

Unfortunately, some brothers and sisters have developed their own personal interpretation of the concept, "God's will in Control," in order to evade changes in many of their deeds. How-

Do human beings have absolute rights, convictions and values to dictate our lives? We will be held accountable for this decision. The Omniscient shows us in Surah 33:72, "We offered the responsibility (freedom of choice) to the heavens and the earth, and the mountains, but they refused to bear it, and were afraid of it. But the human being accepted it; he was transgressing, ignorant."
